What is this product?

Type

OTC - Put Option

Objectives

The buyer of a Put Option has the right, but not the obligation to exchange an agreed amount in one currency (the notional amount) for a fixed amount in another currency at a fixed exchange rate (the strike rate) on an agreed settlement date.

The terms set out below are illustrative of the terms of a Call Option, but are not the exact terms you agree with SpareBank 1 Markets. The exact terms will be set out in each individual trade confirmation.

At the expiration date, the buyer of the option will have a right, but not an obligation, to exchange the agreed amount at an agreed option strike rate. In order to benefit from having a right, but not an obligation, the buyer of a Put Option agrees to pay a premium to the seller.

At the time of expiration, the following scenarios apply:

Market spot rate at or below the strike rate: The option buyer has a right, but not an obligation, to sell the notional amount at the strike rate.

Market spot rate above the strike rate: The option buyer has no obligation to buy the notional amount.

The illustrative terms are used for subsequent performance scenarios and calculation of costs.

In the agreement between you and SpareBank 1 Markets / SpareBank 1 SMN it is specified that if certain defined events occur, (1) SpareBank 1 Markets may adjust the product; and/or (2) SpareBank 1 Markets may terminate the product early. The return (if any) you receive on such early termination and/or adjustment is likely to be different from that received in the scenarios described above.

What are the risks and what could I get in return?

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you. We have classified this product as 7 out of 7, which is the highest risk class. Please be aware of currency risk. You will receive payments in a different currency, so the final return you will get depends on the exchange rate between the two currencies. This risk is not considered in the indicator shown above. This product does not include any protection from future market performance so you could lose some or all of your investment. If we are not able to pay you what is owed, you could lose your entire investment.

This table shows the money you could get back over the next 6 months, under different scenarios, assuming that you invest EUR 10.000,00. The scenarios shown illustrate how your investment could perform. You can compare them with the scenarios of other products. The scenarios presented are an estimate of future performance based on evidence from the past on how the value of this investment varies, and are not an exact indicator. What you get will vary depending on how the market performs and how long you keep the investment/product. The stress scenario shows what you might get back in extreme market circumstances, and it does not take into account the situation where we are not able to pay you. This product cannot be easily cashed in. This means it is difficult to estimate how much you would get back if you cash in before maturity. You will either be unable to cash in early or you will have to pay high costs or make a large loss if you do so. The figures shown include all the costs of the product itself and includes the costs of your advisor or distributor. The figures do not take into account your personal tax situation, which may also affect how much you get back.

What happens if SpareBank 1 Markets is unable to pay out?

This product is not subject to any legal or other deposit protection scheme or any other form of guarantee. This means that if SpareBank 1 Markets is unable to pay out, due to insolvency or other reasons, you may lose all of your expected payments.

What are the costs?

The Reduction in Yield (RIY) shows what impact the total costs you pay will have on the investment return you might get. The total costs take into account one-off, ongoing and incidental costs.

The amounts shown here are the cumulative costs of the product itself. They include potential early exit penalties. The figures assume you invest EUR 10.000,00. The figures are estimates and may change in the future.
